

Malcolm Fox Memorial Trophy Competition – November 2018

The challenge this year was to turn a platter, which could be left plain or decorated to your taste. The choice was left up to the entrant. On the night we received thirteen entries for the competition and the efforts can all be seen in the photos below.

First place went to Peter Thurston, there was a tie for second place between John Abercrombie and Ian Cameron. Fourth place went to Mike Charnley.

Congratulations to our winners and a big thank you to those members who spent time working on their entries. It is heartening to see all the entries and I look forward to next year's competition.
